MEMBER NEWS:

Welcome back
Patti-Cannon-Levesque!

What's she been up to in her absence?
....Family time, garden time, serving on the Board of Directors at the Mann, and of course some studio time. She is incorporating some stonework into her art lately, but still works primarily in glass.

You gotta check out this beauty in person to appreciate the size and detail!

Congratulations to Reanne Settee,

and to her family (Dylan, James and Theodore) on the birth of their baby girl, Daisy Deone, in August.

NEW MEMBERS!

We are WAAAYYY behind in introducing them to you. Andrea Bird and Kyla Lewis both came to our group in 2024, and Ulrike Graner and Pamela Hird became Guest Members in the spring of 2025.

Andrea Bird

Andrea practices healing through art and the emotions we can access through the journey of creating. Her work is generally abstract and impressionist. She seeks to make it sustainable through the use of reclaimed materials and wild-foraged pigments.

Kyla Lewis

Kyla took time during covid to add to her spinning skills with narrow band weaving, Språng, and pottery. She now works as the pottery technician at the PA Art Centre and has opened Rose Hound Studios where you can see her work.

Ulrike Graner

Ulrike creates beautiful pastel paintings. She started painting with a passion in 2017, after classes with George Glenn and Karen Margulis. Originally from Germany, Ulrike came to our attention when she won the Kyla Landscape Award at the PA Winter Festival Show and Sale in 2025.

Pamela Hird

Pam has a passion for texture and expresses this especially through her work with acrylic, as well as other mediums. She is now a full-time artist in PA.
